

Art. 1. Organisation

An International Olive Oil Competition will be organized in the town of San Remo (Italy) in order to promote and develop high quality extra virgin olive oils. It will be held on 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th of June 2018 and will be called MOOOIC – Masters of International Olive Oil Competition.

The Competition, organized by the “Masters of Olive Oil Org” , aims at promoting the knowledge and the use of extra virgin olive oil in a correct, healthy and positive diet, spreading the culture of olive oil and informing consumers about its benefits for our health.

Art. 2. Mission

MOOOIC – Masters of International Olive Oil Competition is an international competition of Extra Virgin Olive Oil (OEVO / EVOO) organized in order to achieve the following objectives:

- spread the knowledge of Extra Virgin Olive Oil in the world and highlight its positive aspects;
- reward the best extra virgin olive oils which take part in the competition coming from any area;
- promote and disclose the nutritional benefits of extra virgin olive oil through mass-media;
- contribute to the diffusion of the OEVO / EVOO and encourage its use in international markets focusing the main marketing strategy on the exceptional quality of the extra virgin olive oil produced in various parts of the world;
- promote an increasingly greater awareness of the consumption of extra virgin olive oil in Italy, in the area of the Mediterranean and all around the world;
- illustrate the nutritional benefits of extra virgin olive oil in the Mediterranean diet and in a healthy diet in general;
- promote the winning companies in particular (and all the participants who have been able to produce an extra virgin olive oil to a high standard) among consumers, distributors, importers, retail chains in international markets and in the media;
- encourage and increase the consumption of high quality international extra virgin olive oil by trying to create a consensus of favorable opinion that can be influential in the media;
- publish an online guide of the Winning Companies on the website <https://mastersofoliveoil.org/> on a dedicated page "map of the winning companies of MOOOIC 2018" and of the participating companies whose samples have passed a rating of 75/100 in the unquestionable judgments of the Jury .

Art. 3. Stages

The participation procedures to the MOOIC Competition and the evaluating sessions will take place according to the following timetable:

– certified chemical laboratory analysis (UV, Peroxide, FFA)/self-declaration;

Our organization staff will check all the information related to each registered product, of which the participant takes full responsibility for.

They will verify if the sample complies with all the regulations and if it is registered in the competition.

Each samples admitted to the competition will be assigned with a alphanumeric code and the original label will be entirely covered to make the sample anonymous.

Then the sample will be classified in its specific category.

The evaluation form we use is based on the recommendations and method of IOC (International Olive Oil Council), modified and customized by the technical committee for MOOOIC Masters of International Olive Oil Competition and ranges from 0 to 100 points.

Art. 10. Jury

The technical committee of the competition will select the jury and the members of the panel of experts. The total number of international judges who will taste the extra virgin olive oils depends on the amount of samples submitted to the competition. The jury is made up of minimum 8 experts in charge of tasting the oils and they will be chaired by the Panel appointed by the Panel Chairman of the Competition The President and the Head Specialist of MOOOIC will preside over the Competition. In order to maintain the highest level of OBJECTIVITY, no judge will taste extra virgin olive oils produced by companies in which he/she him/herself or members of his/her family, have a specific economic interest (producers, distributors, packers, etc.). For this purpose, all judges are required to provide a statement showing whether or not they have any involvement/commitment with the olive industry. If one or more judges are involved, they will be asked to judge the samples for which there is no conflict of interests.

Art. 11. General results and Awards

All the winners will be informed by e-mail and will be able to see the results on the website of the Competition MOOOIC - www.mastersofoliveoil.org .

This will be the only official announcement of the awards and the quality of the product recognized by the official panel of the Competition MOOOIC. A technical data sheet and a description of the oil sent to the Competition will be sent to each company with information about
